

XXXIV INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL OF ANIMATION CINEMA AND COMICS FROM 16TH TO 22ND JULY 2018.

The Festival features short animated films in various sections:

8th Cartoon Club Award, open to short animated films made by professional filmmakers and production houses. The jury of the Festival will select 20 short films to compete for the award and will put the remaining works in the Cartoon Club Panorama Section.

22th Signor Rossi Award, open to animated films made by students of secondary schools, university courses, and the animated film schools. The jury of the Festival will select 20 short films to compete for the award and will put the remaining works in the Signor Rossi Panorama Section.

Cartoon Kids Award, among the submitted films the direction of the Festival will select, at its own discretion, some short animated films aimed at a child audience. Among these films a jury of only children will decide the winner.

International Panorama, non-competitive, open to European and non-European animated feature films and short films.
